

ASSOCIATION FOR STUDENT RESIDENTIAL ACCOMMODATION

The Home of Student Accommodation Professionals

The leading professional membership body connecting accommodation practitioners, residential life teams and sector partners across the UK and Ireland.

WHO WE ARE

A network built for accommodation professionals

The Association for Student Residential Accommodation, ASRA, is the professional membership body representing student accommodation and residential life professionals across the UK and Ireland — a diverse, collaborative community spanning universities, colleges, students' unions, PBSA providers and housing associations.

Our members are responsible for accommodation operations, residential life programmes, student wellbeing, facilities, compliance and the wider student experience.

WHAT WE DO

Shaping practice, not just sharing it

Sector Representation

ASRA represents student accommodation providers on statutory boards and across housing-related organisations, ensuring the sector's voice is heard where it matters most.

Professional Development

Through training events, webinars and year-round engagement, ASRA provides a space where ideas are tested, experiences shared and sector priorities explored.

Knowledge & Standards

We keep members up to date on the latest developments and trends, promoting best practice in student housing management across all sectors.
